

ON THE MOVE

WOMEN MAKING STRIDES • BUSINESS SUCCESS STORIES

Job Changes/Promotions

Bissell has hired Rhonda Walcott (top) as controller; Robyn Gainey (bottom) and Ali Stanley as property assistants; Lori McManus as assistant human resources director at Bissell Hotels; and Jessica Vecchione as recruiting manager at Bissell Hotels.

Vanessa Jenkins was promoted from director of sales and marketing for Preston Development Company to executive vice president.

Dr. Tiffani Jones has joined Providence Obstetrics & Gynecology; her special interests include pelvic pain, adolescents, obesity, and minimally invasive surgery.

The Mint Museum has hired Ana Lucia Divins as Latino community education liaison, a newly created position.

Evelyn Leathers was hired by Shaw University as vice president for institutional advancement.

Atkins has hired Jeanne K. Richter, PE, a licensed professional engineer, as senior project manager in the company's transportation highways and bridges sector.

Bednar Cosmetic Surgery has hired Laura Murphy, a licensed esthetician and makeup artist, as a skincare specialist at its satellite location in Rain Salon, at 1910 South Blvd.

The Charlotte Mecklenburg Library has hired Deirdre Middleton as new early literacy coordinator.

Awards & Installations

Crystal Campagna (center) has received the Champion Award from the Lupus Foundation of America, Piedmont Chapter, at its 12th Annual NC Lupus Summit.

T. Reid and Company Salon & Spa was named one of the Top 100 Salons in America by Elle Magazine.

YWCA Central Carolinas has announced its 2012 Women of Achievement Winners (from left to right): Janice Valder Offerman, Pioneer winner, given to a mature woman who has exemplified a lifetime commitment to promoting social justice; Antonia Childs, Emerging Leader winner, given to a woman of the rising generation who will lead our community forward; and Melissa Memmert, Community Champion winner, given to an established woman currently working at the forefront of social change.

Nancy Black Norelli, a lawyer and former district court judge, has been honored by North Carolina Lawyers Weekly with a 2012 Women of Justice Award; a Litigation Practitioner Award; and she also is a finalist for the Woman of the Year Award.

GreyHawk Films was a finalist in the Video of the Year category in the ninth annual Stevie® Awards for Women in Business.

Six women attorneys from Horack Talley were selected by their peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America in the following categories: in family law, Gena G. Morris, Elizabeth T. Hodges, K. Mitchell Kelling, and Elizabeth J. James; in real estate law, Cheryl D. Steele; in bankruptcy and creditor debtor rights/insolvency and reorganization law, Kristin Decker Ogburn.

Twelve companies were selected from 305 applications to receive the American Heart Association's Fit Friendly Worksite designation, presented locally by Moore & Van Allen. Gold recipients are: Carolina Neurosurgery & Spine Associates, Crowder Construction Company, GE Capital Retail Bank, Harris Teeter Supermarkets Inc.'s Corporate Office, Hedrick Gardner Kincheloe & Garofalo, LLP, Mecklenburg County Government, URS Nuclear Center, and Zenith Insurance Company. Fit Friendly Platinum level recipients are: Domtar Paper Company, LLC, EDI-Shealy, Frye Regional Medical Center, and Piedmont Natural Gas.

Tell Us Your News On The Move

Send announcements about hirings, promotions, honors, and new business development — all specifically about/for Charlotte-area women — along with high-resolution images to Editor Karsen Price at karsenprice@hotmail.com.